UNBOUND
deliverance. freedom. belonging.

What Unbound participants are saying...

"I am leaving with an absolutely new level of freedom. I had something in my heart for almost thirty years. It made me fearful, uncertain, and jealous. Now I am free."

"The team was great; they showed me love, respect, and encouragement. I couldn't thank them enough, especially the leader. I've been freed from anxiety, depression, and panic attacks."

"Before attending the conference, I was at rock bottom again in my life and had told my husband I was filing for divorce. I carried around so much junk in my heart that I wanted to free my husband of my horrible choices. At the conference my burden was lifted, I was FREED of the junk I thought I had to carry forever as a reminder of my choices. Not only my choices, but my parents' choices as well. I went home talking to God the whole way."

"I was under constant self-condemnation for past confessed sins, and I felt worthless. Now I am free to bask in Jesus' love for me."

"I was prayed over on Friday and felt a heavy load of sadness and pain just lift off my shoulders and heart. I experienced acceptance and peace and felt the love of Jesus."

"The seminar was and is a turning point in my spiritual journey. All my life, I have found it so difficult to feel close to God as Father because of the cruel and unloving behavior of my earthly father. I was friends with Jesus, but have never felt that special love that I have heard all my life about and yearned for. Tears come to my eyes now whenever I speak to my heavenly Father. I don't know when where or how it happened, but gradually during the seminar, from your wonderful presentations, I began to experience that "yes" God does really love me, warts and all."

"The time I was prayed over and ministered to lifted years of abuse and self-loathing off of my shoulders! Over the years I had many traumas that left me with no identity. Through the healing ministry on Saturday afternoon I was restored to full life. I thank God for the opportunity to be at the Unbound conference. All of the cords of abuse were severed, and I am left completely free."

"I have received freedom. I no longer feel unworthy and will never doubt again. I belong to God the Father. He is truly my Daddy and will continue to do the good works in me that He has done today"

"I had known the Lord in my youth but had walked away. Eventually I became bound by alcohol and my marriage was in shambles. I believed that by walking away from God I had committed an unforgivable sin and could never come back to the Lord. When my sister prayed with me, I was set free from alcohol addiction, without any withdrawal or desire to return and her life was radically changed. A year later, I felt the Lord wanted me to give up smoking as a preparation for Easter. I was able to quit immediately with no withdrawal! All my smoking friends ask me what program did I go on? My response: I am on the Jesus program."

"I feel happier and more loved by God today than I have for many years, especially after the blessing I received at the end of the conference."
